

The Tortoise and the Hare

This story is one of Aesop's fables. It's about a hare who makes fun of a tortoise for how slow he moves. The tortoise challenges him to a race. The hare runs ahead and is so confident that he takes a nap halfway through. When he wakes up, the tortoise had slowly but steadily finished the race.

Slow and steady wins the race.

Color the scene to the right and draw your own tortoise and hare!

