

Paper Plate Menorah

Hanukkah is a Jewish festival that celebrates when a group of Jewish warriors took back the Temple of Jerusalem in 2nd century BCE. The festival lasts eight days and is also known as Chanukah or the Festival of Lights.

Materials: Paper plate, paints and paintbrush, scissors, glue, ribbon/string, blank piece of paper

Steps:

1. Cut out the candle from this sheet. Trace onto a blank piece of paper eight times for a total of nine candles.
2. Paint and cut out the candles. Let dry.
3. Cut your paper plate in half and paint gold. Let dry.
4. Glue or tape your nine candles onto the flat side of the paper plate.
5. Glue or tape your ribbon to the corners of the paper plate and hang up!

