

THE YEAK

Yeak means giant in Khmer and is one of the roles in Cambodian classical dance. The role requires a lot of strength. There are many different costumes and characters within the Yeak role. For instance, as seen in this coloring sheet, the Yeak is wearing a mask. The details of the mask and prop that is used can change depending on the specific character and dance that is performed.

